19. SURRENDER OF PREMISES.
Upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, Tenant shall peaceably quit and surrender the Premises in as good a condition as they were at the commencement of this Lease, reasonable wear and tear excepted. The Premises shall be returned in "broom clean" condition, vacant, and free of all personal property and debris.

If Tenant fails to pay rent, Landlord may pursue all legal remedies for the collection of rent, independent of the Security Deposit. If Tenant vacates the Premises with unpaid rent, Landlord shall be entitled to apply the Security Deposit toward the satisfaction of such unpaid rent and any other damages, as permitted by law, following the required itemized notice of deductions.

21. ABANDONMENT.
Abandonment and Default: If Tenant abandons the Premises, Landlord shall have the right to retake possession of the Premises in accordance with applicable law and proceed to relet the Premises to mitigate damages. Landlord makes no representations or warranties that any such system is complete, foolproof, or will prevent loss or harm. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord is not an insurer and that it is the Tenant's responsibility to obtain their own renter's insurance to protect against personal property loss or injury. 24. PERSONAL PROPERTY AND INSURANCE.
Tenant acknowledges that Landlord's insurance policy does not cover Tenant's personal property, including but not limited to belongings, electronics, or furniture, nor does it provide liability coverage for the Tenant. Tenant is strongly advised to obtain a renter's insurance policy to protect against loss of personal property, fire, theft, or liability. Landlord shall not be responsible for any loss or damage to Tenant's property, regardless of the cause, and Tenant agrees to hold Landlord harmless from any such claims.
